_____ The horse/mule available for adoption come to Justice For Abused Animals INC., in a variety of ways, but they all have one thing in common: they need loving and permanent homes. Their health is strictly monitored while in the care of their foster home. However, due to the stressful situations under which many of these arrive, there is always the chance an animal is incubating a disease without showing clinical signs. We recommend a visit to your veterinarian within seven (7) days of the adoption date. We believe these animals to be in good health, but does not guarantee the health of any canine or assume any financial responsibility for future veterinary costs.

_____ When adopting a horse we expect you to make a lifetime commitment to the care of this animal. I agree to assume full responsibility for its well-being, including providing adequate & wholesome food, fresh water, shelter from weather & any veterinary treatment needed to provide continued health & well-being of this rescue. I understand I am adopting a horse/mule, in agreement you give permission for JFAA to make follow-up visit/visits within the first year of owning the animal, also you agree to keep vaccinations up to date yearly. If, however, you ever find yourself unable to properly care for this animal, we ask that you agree to make every effort to return the animal to this rescue organization. We ask that you please do NOT place this adopted animal on Craigslist or other similar sites to get rid of them.

_____ All information obtained via photographs, social media, and email pertaining the adoption and care of any animal of JFAA is hereby released to JFAA without prejudice. All photographs and information obtained may be used by JFAA for the purpose of promotion of efforts of JFAA.

_____ You agree that you are at least 21 years of age and have a valid driver's license.

_____ I agree to abide by all city & county animals control ordinances, specifically any leash laws to prevent the rescue from roaming and becoming a nuisance animals and/or becoming hurt by vehicles or any other means.

_____ I do understand that after receiving the new animal, transferred to me, the adoption fee in the of the amount $_____ WILL NOT BE REFUNDED.

By signing below, you agree that the information provided on this application is correct to the best of your knowledge and that you have read and agree to all statements above. Anyone who misleads or fails to provide accurate information will be denied all future adoption rights.
